GDPR Privacy Notice – Summary statement

If you are interested in the Fund(s) and contact us about them, or already hold shares or units in a Fund, we are likely to process personal information about you. As such, and in accordance with our obligations under data protection law, BMO Asset Management Limited's privacy notice provides details about our processing of your personal information. The most up to date version of the Privacy Notice is available online at bmogam.com/privacy.

Our Privacy Notice provides you with important information about how, when, and why we collect and process your personal information. The Privacy Notice also provides you with information regarding your rights in relation to the personal information which we process about you and our responsibilities in that regard.

As ISA manager, when we process your personal information, it is being processed:

1. to comply with our legal obligations, such as our financial regulatory obligations (which include the obligation to record calls and monitor trades), identity verification and anti-money-laundering obligations amongst others specified in our Privacy Notice;
2. where it is necessary for us to provide our services to you, which includes, for example undertaking transactions in relation to your investments, communicating with you about your investments and any changes to them or their performance amongst others specified in our Privacy Notice;
3. where it is necessary for our legitimate interests (so long as those legitimate interests are not overridden by your interests or fundamental rights). Those legitimate interests include monitoring calls for training, quality and security purposes, testing our products and services to ensure that they are performing to their best potential (and therefore your financial benefit), contacting you about updates to our Privacy Policy and other document amendments, appointing third party contractors to assist us carry our services amongst others specified in our Privacy Notice;
4. where it is necessary for the performance of a task which is in the public interest, such as assisting with regulatory and/or other law enforcement investigations, as well as for our ability to have appropriate conversations and dialogue with regulators in relation to our business practices; and/or
5. where you have given your consent, such as when you have agreed to receive marketing communications from us, or where you have consented or instructed us to provide information to a third party (such as your financial advisor), or where you have volunteered personal information to us during correspondence amongst others specified in our Privacy Notice.

We can confirm that when you provide personal information to us, it will be shared with other third parties and further information is provided about this in the Privacy Notice. We can also advise you that your personal information will be sent outside of the European Economic Area and our Privacy Notice gives you guidance on how to obtain further information about these transfers, if you would like to know more about them.

As you may be aware, when we process personal information about you, you have certain rights in relation to your personal information and we are under various obligations in relation to the same. Included within the Privacy Notice is information about your rights, and how you can contact us about exercising them.

The above is a summary of the key aspects of how we process your personal information, and important aspects of our Privacy Notice which we consider that you may be most interested in. There is a lot more information and detail on each of the above topics, and other information about how we process your personal information which is contained within our Privacy Notice. We recommend that you take time to read our Privacy Notice, or use it as your first port of call in the event you have a question about our processing of your personal information. Of course, if you have any questions, you can also contact us directly using the below information.
