

BMO Real Estate Partners Strengthens its Investment Team in Paris

PARIS, January 31, 2017 - BMO Real Estate Partners announces the appointment of Kamila Bouyahiaoui, who joins the Paris team as a Senior Analyst.

Kamila Bouyahiaoui will support the investment activities of the various European funds and mandates of BMO Real Estate Partners and will report to Adrien Brion, European Portfolio Manager and Associate Director of the Paris office.

Kamila Bouyahiaoui has a background in commercial real estate, most recently as a Fund Management Analyst at Grosvenor Europe. Prior to this Kamila was an Investment Analyst at Hines France. She graduated from HEC Paris business school and the Polytechnic School of Algiers.

"Kamila's experience increases our execution capacity. The strengthening of our investment team reflects our growth strategy in the European market," says Adrien Brion.

BMO Real Estate Partners is part of BMO Global Asset Management, which in turn is part of BMO Financial Group, founded as the Bank of Montreal in 1817. BMO Financial Group is Canada's leading bank and one of the top ten banks in North America.

BMO Real Estate Partners opened its Paris office in May 2015 under the responsibility of Ian Kelley, Fund Director Europe, to develop a European platform complementing the existing European activities in the UK, Germany and Ireland.
