Canada Learning Bond (CLB) Application for Adult Beneficiaries

ESDC SDE 0107

Adult beneficiaries who are between 18 and 20 years of age can apply for the CLB using this Adult CLB application form to:

- request the CLB and/or
- designate an RESP for CLB payment

if the CLB has not already been requested for the beneficiary. They can apply for the CLB until the day before they turn 21 years of age.

This form is not required if the beneficiary is already receiving the CLB.

BMO RESP Contract Number is the RESP Account

Example: 00012345678, 000081234561

If beneficiaries are between 18 and 20 and:

- are also the subscriber(s) of the RESP, they will apply for the CLB using this same form. Section 3 must be left blank.
- are not the subscriber(s) of the RESP, the subscriber must complete Section 3 of this form.

Note: For beneficiaries under 18 years of age, use form ESDC SDE 0093 (Canada Education Savings Grant (CESG) and Canada Learning Bond (CLB) Application Form) to apply for the CLB.

Canada Learning Bond (CLB) Application for Adult Beneficiaries

Instructions:

- Complete this form if you are between 18 and 20 years of age and meet one of the following criteria:

Your privacy rights

Your information is collected under the authority of the Department of Employment and Social Development Act, the Canada Education Savings Act and the Income Tax Act for the administration of the CLB. We collect the Social Insurance Number (SIN) of the beneficiary under the authority of the Canada Education Savings Act to match the CLB application to the beneficiary information in order to pay the CLB.

Submitting this application is voluntary. However, we will be unable to process the application if you do not provide the required information.

Your information may be used by and shared between the following parties for the administration of the CLB: ESDC, the Canada Revenue Agency, the RESP provider and its agents, the trustee, and between RESP providers when transferring RESP assets. Information may also be disclosed to Statistics Canada for research and statistical purposes.

Your information may be shared with a third party contracted by ESDC for direct mailings. Your information may also be used for policy analysis, research and/or evaluation purposes. These additional uses will never result in an administrative decision being made about you.

Your information is administered in accordance with the Department of Employment and Social Development Act, the Canada Education Savings Act, the Privacy Act and all other applicable laws. You have the right to the protection of, access to, and correction of your personal information. Your information is described in the personal information bank ESDC PPU 506 Canada Education Savings Program. Instructions for obtaining this information are outlined in the government publication, Information about Programs and Information Holdings, which is available online at canada.ca/en/treasury-board-secretariat/services/access-information-privacy/access-information/information-about-programs-information-holdings. The publication is accessible online at any Service Canada Centre.

You have the right to file a complaint with the Office of the Privacy Commissioner of Canada regarding ESDC's handling of your information at priv.gc.ca/en/report-a-concern.

This section explains why your personal information is collected and how it is used, shared and protected. It also explains how you can access your personal information.

Definitions

Adjusted income: The adjusted income of a beneficiary's individual primary caregiver is determined by adding together the net income (line 236 of the income tax and benefit return) for the primary caregiver and their cohabiting spouse or common-law partner (if applicable) and adjusting this family net income by deducting any universal child care benefit (UCCB) and registered disability savings plan (RDSP) payments received and adding any UCCB and RDSP amounts repaid.

Beneficiary: A beneficiary is the individual named by the subscriber who will receive the education savings incentives to help pay for their post-secondary education if they qualify under the terms of the RESP. The beneficiary must be under the age of 21 at the time of application.

Canada Learning Bond (CLB): Money added to an RESP for children from low-income families, and for children in care, born after December 31, 2003. It includes an initial amount for the first year of eligibility and additional amounts for each subsequent year the child continues to be eligible, up to and including the benefit year in which they turn 15 years of age. Eligibility for the CLB is based, in part, on the number of qualified children in the family and the adjusted income of the individual primary caregiver, as outlined in the Canada Education Savings Act.

Primary caregiver: Individual who is primarily responsible for the care of the child and is eligible for the Canada Child Benefit (CCB), and whose name appears on the CCB payments and notice. For a beneficiary between 18 and 20 years of age, if their former primary caregiver never applied for the CCB, the CLB cannot be paid if the beneficiary applies for the CLB. The former primary caregiver for those years must apply retroactively for the CCB. For more information, contact the CCB call centre at: 1-800-387-1193.

Public primary caregiver: Department, agency or institution that receives the allowance payable under the Children's Special Allowances Act.

RESP provider (also called promoter): Individual or organization offering an RESP to the public and who will open an RESP for the subscriber.

Subscriber: Individual or child care agency who opens an RESP, names one or more beneficiaries and may deposit money (contributions) into the RESP. Individuals may need to meet a minimum age requirement to open an RESP. Check with your RESP provider for further information.

Trustee: Financial organization that invests, administers, and distributes the money in the RESP for the beneficiary.

These definitions are provided for your information only and do not constitute the legal definitions. In the event of a discrepancy, the legal definitions found in the Income Tax Act and the Canada Education Savings Act shall prevail.
