BMO Global Asset Management Appoints Head of Global Consultant Relations

CHICAGO / LONDON, 25 July 2018 – BMO Global Asset Management today announced the appointment of Anne Coupe, who joins the firm in a newly created role as Head of Global Consultant Relations. Ms. Coupe will be based in Chicago and will report to David Logan, Global Head of Distribution.

Ms. Coupe will be responsible for deepening BMO Global Asset Management's engagement with leading global investment consultants as part of its continued drive to evolve and grow its global institutional business. Ms. Coupe has significant experience in this field, and joins the firm having developed a track record of success in consultant relations roles with global asset management firms.

"I am pleased to welcome Anne to the team and look forward to the role she will play in enhancing our communication and coordinating our efforts with the leading global investment consultants," said Mr. Logan. "We have developed a strong foundation with consultants across the globe and Anne's appointment is a further indication of the importance of the global institutional market to our growth aspirations."
